Dear coordinators,

We will be running a special lab safety session on Thursday Nov 17, 1:30-3:30 PM, room 102 Draper hall. This session is in response to the myriad of calls Nancy received from the undergraduates lab workers whose schedules conflict with our normal seminar times. Please urge students (mostly Undergrads) to sign up early as space are limited to only 30 -35 and we already have 7 signed up. I am also enclosing the dates for future seminars. I am working on the next semester's schedule and will let you all at a later date. Thank you and enjoy the long weekend YM
